

June 2017

[Spring Workshop 2017] Summary Feedback

Feedback for the ETUG Spring Jam has come in and as is our practice we'd like to share the participant responses with everyone. 35 people (of 118) completed the survey to date. Here's what they said: Networking This was a valuable networking opportunity. 54.3 % (19) Strongly Agree 40% (14) Agree 5.7% (2) Neither Agree nor Disagree Value This was good ...

Read more.

[Spring Workshop 2017] Resource List

Resources from the Spring Jam 2017!
And More to Come! (To be Updated)

as we receive more resources to share.)

Read more.

Our ETUG Road Trip

Contributed by Hope Miller. Read my account of our road trip to attend the Spring 2017 ETUG Workshop held in Kelowna on June 1 and 2. What a great time for networking, collaborating, and hanging with ETUGgers from across the province and beyond!

Join ETUG on Slack!

ETUG has recently set up a channel on Slack. It is an informal space and we are currently experimenting with Slack as a potential community hub for ETUG. Jump in and join us on Slack.

Read more.

[Institutional Report] Vancouver Community College

Contributed by Andy Sellwood, VCC. My role at VCC is as an Instructional Associate. I am one of four people that work in the position. Our main responsibility is to work on projects initiated by the many academic departments in the college related to the creation or revision of programs and curriculum. We also support instructors and department leaders ...

Read more.

Sketching in Practice

SKETCHING IN PRACTICE (SKiP) is a two-day symposium that explores the construction of meanings through sketching. This year we are focusing on the HOW and WHY particular visual strategies are used to achieve a goal.

This event is held in partnership with Simon Fraser University's Faculty of Communication, Art & Technology; School of Interactive

Art and Technology; Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences; and the Teaching and Learning Centre.

Research Project on Effectiveness of Online Learning Activities

Melissa Jakubec is a Senior Learning Designer at Thompson Rivers University – Open Learning. She is conducting a research project into the effectiveness of online learning activities. You are invited to participate in a survey on the effectiveness of online learning activities, which should take approximately 15 to 20 minutes and will be open until June 30. The purpose of this project is to ascertain which learning activities instructional designers and educators perceive to be most effective in online environments. Another purpose is to gather instructional designers and educators' views of which characteristics contribute most to the effectiveness of a learning activity.

Thank you for considering participating in Melissa's research!

BCcampus
EdTech Demos
Webinar Series

BCcampus  EdTech

Contributed by Clint Lalonde, BCcampus In the fall of 2016, BCcampus began a new series called EdTech Demos. EdTech Demos are free online webinars coordinated by BCcampus to provide information about new and emerging educational technologies in order to help BC post-secondary institutions make smart decisions about educational technologies. This year, BCcampus hosted nine such demos, showcasing a variety of ...

Read more.

ETUG Newsletter on summer hiatus

We're taking a break for July and August, but will be back in September--better than ever! Happy trails, all!

Supported By:

