Celebrate good times, come on!

With ETUG turning 25, we can't have a conference without a bit of party to celebrate this amazing milestone for our community. The 25th Anniversary Celebration Dinner will be held at TRU in the Mountain Room directly following the poster session at the end of Day 1. There will be a no-host bar, a buffet dinner, speeches, and awards.

[ETUG 25] National Indigenous Peoples' Day

ETUG recognizes that TRU is situated on the traditional Secwepemc territory, and we honour the culture, language, and traditions of the Secwepemc people. Join us at 8:15am on June 21 to begin National Indigenous Peoples' day with an Elder's lesson on a traditional smudging, followed by an invitation to go outside and start our final day with a smudging.

[Institutional Update]

Thompson Rivers University

THOMPSON RIVERS  UNIVERSITY

Contributed by Troy Welch, TRU and SCETUG Just like every other institution in the province, the past few years at TRU have been characterized by an exciting variety of changes, initiatives, and new faces and roles. Our new institutional President/Vice-Chancellor Brett Fairbairn joined us in late fall and has hit the ground running by initiating a community-wide consultation called Envision

[\[Member Profile\]](#) Meet Jamie Billingham from JIBC

Submitted by Bonnie Johnston, SCETUG How long have you been involved in teaching, learning and educational technology? Seems like forever, lol! I was a (provincial) correctional officer in the 90s and was fortunate enough to be one of the pioneers in Core programs. Maggie Feehan and Eliot Lowey had been contracted to develop two of the Core programs (Substance Abuse ...

Flashback Friday - 2011 + 2012

As ETUG celebrates 25 years, we are taking the opportunity every Friday to dig into our archives and celebrate our 25-year history. Today's Flashback Friday continues back in time to the years 2011 and 2012. It's 2011! In Spring of 2011, SCETUG, chaired by the Amanda Coolidge and Grant Potter, led the way into the wilds of open with an ...
